(Contains 11 graphs and 21 tables of enrollment statistics.) (MKF)

DIRECT ENTRY ENROLLMENTS OF MIAMI-DADE COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES
FALL AND SPRING (WINTER) TERMS
1996-97 THROUGH 2000-01

COLLEGE-WIDE HIGHLIGHTS

High school draw data reported here contain the two major terms, Fall and Spring (Winter). Data consist of enrollments of Miami-Dade County public high school graduates of the previous year as well as graduates of private/special/magnet schools within the County. Because students study on more than one M-DCC campus, the campus reported for enrollees is the site where students take more than 50% of their credits. Where the credit division is split equally, the default campus is the home (record) campus. Data for all years include students who acquired any high school award type. These graduates were twenty-one years old or younger at time of award acquisition. In the interpretation of year-to-year comparisons, especially for campus data, caution needs to be exercised when dealing with small absolute numbers for these tend to produce large proportional differences.

- In 2000-01, M-DCC had a draw of 4,733 or 35.2% of the high school graduates. While this represented an increase of 45 students, the percent draw declined 1.4 percentage points from the previous year since the number of prior year high school graduates increased in 2000-01.
- For 2000-01, M-DCC enrolled 20.8% of White non-Hispanic and 27.5% of Black non-Hispanic graduates. The Hispanic draw of 44.6% is the lowest for this ethnic group in all the years studied.
- The five-year draw comparison reveals a 1.4% increase in high school graduations and a 5.6% decrease in draw to the College.
- Over the five-year period, enrollment was lower for every group: -10.3% for White non-Hispanics, -5.5% for Black non-Hispanics, and -4.0% for Hispanic graduates.
- Comparison of the latest two years, 1999-00 and 2000-01, shows decreases in White non-Hispanic enrollments (-8.8%) and Hispanic (-0.8%) enrollments. Black non-Hispanic enrollments increased sharply by 13.9%.

Detail for 2000-01:

- Kendall Campus enrolled the most prior year high school graduates (2,135 students), followed by North Campus (1,381 students), Wolfson Campus (790 students), InterAmerican Campus (202 students), and Homestead Campus (196 students).
- Schools with the highest percent draw are Miami Senior (51.7%), Sunset (46.9%), Hialeah (45.0%), and South Miami (44.8%).

- In all, 44 private/special/magnet schools are represented among 2000-01 new high school graduates enrolled at M-DCC.
- There were 776 students from these schools in 2000-01 compared to 841* in 1999-00.
- From these private/special/magnet schools, 411 or 53.0% attended Kendall, 184 or 23.7% attended North, 124 or 16.0% attended Wolfson, 33 or 4.3% attended InterAmerican, and 17 or 2.2% attended Homestead Campus.
